ST PATRICK'S PRIMARY SCHOOL

Credit Reporting Policy

Policy Background

St Patrick's Primary School, as a supplier of goods and services on credit or payment terms, is a "credit provider" under the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) (Privacy Act). St Patrick's Primary School offers payment options for the deferred payment of school fees to parents and guardians of St Patrick's Primary School students, such as payment by instalment.

As a credit provider, St Patrick's Primary School is required by Part IIIA of the Privacy Act to have a policy dealing with how St Patrick's Primary School manages your personal credit information and credit eligibility information (Credit-Related Information). St Patrick's Primary School must also comply with the Privacy (Credit Reporting) Code 2014 (Version 2) (CR Code), registered under the Privacy Act. You should read this policy in conjunction with our Privacy Policy.

St Patrick Primary School's Policy

St Patrick's Primary School is committed to the protection of our parents' and guardians' financial information.

It is our policy that:

- We only obtain necessary credit-related information from our parents and carers;
- We use that credit-related information in accordance with the CR Code;
- We manage requests and/or changes of that information in accordance with the CR Code;

Provisions

What is Credit-Related Information and what types of Credit-Related Information do we collect?

Credit-Related Information includes:

- Identification information about an individual (e.g. consumer credit liability information,
- Repayment history information, default information); and
- Credit reporting information from a credit reporting body (CRB).

The types of Credit-Related Information St Patrick's Primary School collects includes:

- The type and amount of credit information you have obtained and the terms upon which it was obtained.
- Repayment history information and default information.
- Whether, in the St Patrick's Primary School's name or another credit provider's opinion, you have committed a serious credit infringement.
- Court proceedings information.
- Certain administrative information relating to credit.

How do we Collect Credit-Related Information?

St Patrick's Primary School collects Credit-Related Information in order to assess your eligibility to obtain goods and/or services from St Patrick's Primary School on credit terms.

Depending on the type of information we are collecting, St Patrick's Primary School may have already collected some Credit-Related Information about an individual in the form of personal information (e.g. name, address, date of birth). The personal information becomes Credit-Related Information once the client obtains credit from St Patrick's Primary School, but only for the purposes of that credit transaction.

Where possible, St Patrick's Primary School will use existing information we hold about an individual before collecting further information.

If St Patrick's Primary School is required to collect Credit-Related Information under an Australian law or a court/tribunal order, St Patrick's Primary School will inform you that the collection is required, including details of the law or court/tribunal order requiring the collection.

Where St Patrick's Primary School requires additional Credit-Related Information, we will collect the information directly from the individual including by using a specially designed form (e.g. application form) or by email, over the telephone or in face to face meetings.

St Patrick's Primary School will also collect Credit-Related Information from other people including:

- representatives of an individual (e.g. their employer, accountant, lawyer); and
- CRBs and other credit providers.

St Patrick's Primary School may collect publicly available information in relation to an individual's activities in Australia and their credit worthiness.

How do we use Credit-Related Information?

We may collect, hold, use and disclose Credit-Related Information in order to:

- assess an application for credit (flexible payment option);
- assess creditworthiness;
- determine payment terms for the goods and/or services St Patrick's Primary School provides;
- day to day administration;
- satisfy St Patrick's Primary School's legal obligations.

How do we store Credit-Related Information?

St Patrick's Primary School may store Credit-Related Information in a variety of formats including, but not limited to:

- databases;
- hard copy files;
- personal devices, including laptop computers
- third party storage providers such as cloud storage facilities; and
- paper based files.

The security of client Credit-Related Information is important to us and we will take all reasonable steps to protect Credit-Related Information from misuse, interference, loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure.

These steps include, but are not limited to:

- Restricting access and user privilege of information by staff depending on their role and responsibilities.
- Ensuring staff do not share personal passwords.
- Ensuring hard copy files are stored in lockable filing cabinets in lockable rooms. Staff access is subject to user privilege.
- Ensuring access to St Patrick's Primary School's premises are secured at all times.
- Implementing physical security measures around the school buildings and grounds to prevent break-ins.
- Ensuring our IT and cyber security systems, policies and procedures are implemented and up to date.
- Ensuring staff comply with internal policies and procedures when handling the information.
- Undertaking due diligence with respect to third party service providers who may have access to personal information, including customer identification providers and cloud service providers, to ensure as far as practicable that they are compliant with to ensure as far as practicable that they are compliant with Part IIIA of the Privacy Act, or a similar privacy regime.
- The destruction, deletion or de-identification of personal information we hold that is no longer needed, or required to be retained by any other laws.

Disclosure of Credit-Related Information

St Patrick's Primary School may disclose Credit-Related Information (including default information) about you to CRBs and debt collection bodies where you are in payment default.

The types of Credit-Related Information we may disclose to CRBs include:

- identification information, such as your name, address and date of birth; and
- information that you have defaulted on payment due to St Patrick's Primary School and the amount of the default.

Subject to the above, St Patrick's Primary School will not disclose Credit-Related Information about you except where it is:

- in accordance with the law;
- authorised by you in contract between you and St Patrick's Primary School; or
- in accordance with consent granted by you.

Access and Correction of Credit-Related Information

Under the Privacy Act, and the CR Code, all individuals are entitled to access their Credit Related Information which we hold, and to have such information amended if necessary and appropriate.

Access and Fees

An individual may contact St Patrick's Primary School and submit a request in writing for access to their Credit Related Information. Such access shall not be denied subject to limited situations. The individual may be asked to prove their identity by the production of a passport, driving licence, or other form of photo identification as deemed necessary.

Upon receipt of a request for access, we will endeavour to respond to the request within a reasonable period. Access will be denied if it unlawful or likely to prejudice enforcement investigations.

The School does not charge a fee to access your Credit-Related Information.

Correction and Fees

An individual may contact St Patrick's Primary School and submit a request in writing to correct Credit Related Information which we hold. Upon receipt of such a request, we will deal with the corrections and inform the individual of the outcome within thirty (30) days.

If we become aware of incorrect Credit Related Personal Information which we hold without any request being received, we shall take reasonable steps to correct the information insofar as is necessary and appropriate. A written notice of correction will be supplied to the individual within a reasonable period of time.

If we are unable to grant access and/or correction, we will provide the individual with written notice of our decision including the reasons for denying the requests and substantive evidence.

The School does not charge a fee for correction requests.

Disclosure to Overseas Recipients

We may disclose Credit-Related Information about a client to overseas recipients in certain circumstances, such as when we are storing information with a 'cloud services provider' which stores data outside of Australia.

We will however take all reasonable steps not to disclose a client's Credit-Related Information to overseas recipients unless we:

- have the client's consent (which may be implied);
- have satisfied ourselves that the overseas recipient is compliant with the Credit Reporting provisions of Part IIIA of the Privacy Act, or a similar privacy regime;
- form the opinion that the disclosure will lessen or prevent a serious threat to the life, health or safety of an individual or to public safety; or
- are taking appropriate action in relation to suspected unlawful activity or serious misconduct.

Complaints

An individual can make a complaint about how St Patrick's Primary School manages their Credit-Related Information by notifying us in writing as soon as possible. We will acknowledge receipt of the complaint within seven (7) days of its receipt. We will provide a response to the complaint in writing within thirty (30) days of receiving the initial complaint.

St Patrick's Primary School does not charge a fee for complaints handling.

If the individual is not satisfied with the outcome of the complaint, the individual can complain to the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner (OAIC). A referral to the OAIC should be a last resort once all other avenues of resolution have been exhausted.
